DEAR FRIENDS,

As I reflect over the past year and the many challenges that come our way, I am consistently lifted by the generosity of our Pope Francis Center community and the thousands of individuals who care deeply for our guests.

At the end of 2021, we broke ground on our Bridge Housing Campus, the centerpiece of our plan to end chronic homelessness in Detroit. We also announced an additional gift from The Julia Burke Foundation totaling $13 million and bringing us within reach of our capital campaign goal for the Campus. We will forever be grateful that the spirit and legacy of Julia Burke now shines brightly in our great city.

As construction on the Campus progresses, the crisis of homelessness continues to worsen, both in our city and throughout the country. So, until we are able to offer housing to those who are unsheltered, we continue to do what we do best: offer unconditional love, radical hospitality, and restorative dignity to those who come to us in need. For those who carry unimaginable burdens of trauma, it is my unwavering conviction that our approach is indispensable for the journey towards healing and wholeness.

In April, we wrapped up a second winter at Huntington Place. Our dedicated band of staff, volunteers, and partners were able to serve over 200 guests each and every day, through the coldest days and the riskiest surges of the pandemic. We are beyond grateful to all of our friends at Huntington Place who went above and beyond to make our staff, volunteers, and guests feel welcome and at home.

Also in April, we held our annual Building Bridges Gala and gathered in-person as a PFC family for the first time since 2019. The outpouring of support from friends near and far reminded me that miracles happen when we all work together towards a common solution. Our gala was one of our most successful to date, securing our ability to care for the growing number of guests who come to us in need each day.

While the road towards a Detroit free of chronic homelessness is long, each step we take is only made possible by your support. Your generosity makes it possible for us to see, care for, and love those in our city who have been made invisible to so many. Thank you!

With my gratitude and prayers,

Fr. Tim McCabe, SJ
Executive Director,
Pope Francis Center

HYGIENE

Daily access to running water, private showers, hygiene products and clean clothing gives guests the opportunity to restore their spirits and protect themselves against a variety of health concerns.

NUTRITION

Guests are greeted every day with two hot meals that are packed with nutrition and made from scratch. Thoughtfully crafted by Chef Hollywood and served by amazing volunteers, these meals help nourish guests' physical, mental and social health.

CLINICS

Through a rotating schedule of daily clinics, our Center partners provide critical services our guests need – such as medical, dental, legal and podiatric support – all without charge.

HOUSING ADVOCACY

Our dedicated team of housing specialists work closely with partners to prepare those experiencing homelessness for a successful transition into permanent supportive housing.

HUNTINGTON PLACE

From October 2021 - April 2022, we operated out of Huntington Place. The expansive space, allowed us to serve even more guests while maintaining social distancing guidelines.

VOLUNTEERS

Our volunteers are the heartbeat of our work. Their selfless service and ability to see humanity in our guests help make the Center a welcoming space. Between serving meals, doing laundry and distributing toiletries, we're thankful for all that they do!

2021-2022 IMPACT

With your support, we were able to care for our most vulnerable neighbors and continue our services through another challenging year affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Your generous donations provided necessary meals and the following critical services, which restored hope and dignity to our guests in need.

HOPE FOR HOME

Ken never expected to fall into homelessness. And the last thing he needed was to be homeless a second time.

When our staff first met Ken, he was without shelter on the unforgiving streets of Detroit.

“At my lowest point, I felt unworthy. I asked, ‘What am I even here for?’” he recalls. Ken would come to the Center regularly to share a meal, do laundry, and take a shower.

“For me, the Center was my lifeline. They were always uplifting...it gave me hope,” Ken admits.

Chris Harthen, Director of Housing Advocacy, worked with Ken, serving as a conduit between him, his caseworker, and the complex housing system.

After several years on a waiting list, he was finally placed into an apartment. Our team celebrated with him as he turned the page on an incredibly challenging season of life.

Ken continued visiting the Center to chat with friends, catch up with staff, or just break bread with volunteers. Sometimes, he’d stop in on his way to the Detroit River where he liked to go fishing.

“I gained a bunch of friends I didn’t think I’d have: Chris, Frank, Father Tim...they’re kind of the reason why I keep hanging around,” Ken shares.

“For me, the Center was my lifeline. They were always uplifting...it gave me hope.”

Soon enough, Ken began volunteering with us, participating in the launch of our bicycle clinic in 2019. As an avid cyclist, Ken helped many PFC guests maintain their bikes and even distributed new ones, restoring dignity, independence, and self-mobility to others in need in the process.

In late 2021, Ken alerted Chris of some issues he had been experiencing at his apartment: the main entrance being left unlocked, drug dealers taking over parts of the building, direct threats to his own safety. Ken had told his landlord and his caseworker, and his housing agency repeatedly promised to move him into a new building.

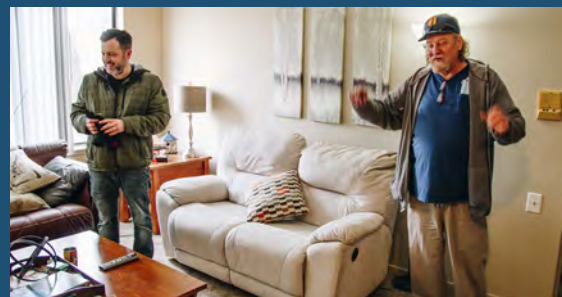

Safe, comfortable & finally home

Patiently, Ken waited for them to make good on their promise. Days turned into weeks, and weeks turned into months.

Long after he should’ve been moved into a better, safer place, the worst scenario imaginable occurred. In the middle of the night, Ken was brutally attacked in the only home he had known for many years. He was beaten within an inch of his life, and many of the few possessions he had were taken from him as he lay helpless on the floor of a place that was meant to be his sanctuary.

Ken spent the weeks that followed in the hospital and inpatient rehabilitation. Unexpectedly, his long-term hospital stay caused his Bridge Card and Medicaid benefits to be discontinued. And because he no longer had healthcare coverage, he was prematurely discharged from the physical therapy facility—a refuge he so desperately needed to recover in.

Just before Thanksgiving, as the cold weather began setting in, Ken had nowhere to go. His caseworker assured him that they were working on finding him a new apartment, but told him that the best they could do in the meantime was have him return to the danger of his old place or report to a homeless shelter. It was devastating news for Ken, who found himself on the brink of homelessness yet again, even after taking all the right steps.

“I needed help, and the Center was right there for me—they all helped me out tremendously,” Ken recalls.

Immediately, Chris jumped in to advocate for Ken.

“I reached out to some friends of the Center. We were able to raise just enough money to rent a hotel room for Ken at least through the holiday season. Even though it was just one guest we were helping, it embodied the essence of what the Center does: we go out of our way and walk with our guests through thick and thin,” Chris shares.

Thanksgiving passed, then Christmas, then 2022 began, and Ken’s caseworker still made no progress on finding housing for him. Ken was losing hope, and we were losing patience.

“I needed help, and the Center was right there for me – they all helped me out tremendously.”

In January 2022, out of frustration and desperation for his friend, Chris emailed as many powerful people in Detroit’s homeless services sector he could think of, demanding that someone take action to rectify Ken’s situation.

Not two days later, Ken walked into the Center and asked, “Did you guys call someone important? Because I just got a call that not only am I getting an apartment, but I’m moving in at the end of the month!”

After years of homelessness, months of complaints, almost being killed in his own home, having his benefits stripped from him, and being returned to the streets just before the holidays, it took the love and dedication we strive to provide for all of our guests to finally secure the housing Ken needed and deserved.

On a cold January morning, we helped move Ken into a senior apartment building on a quiet street in his hometown of Lincoln Park. Our partners at Humble Design provided furniture for his new place, adding a personal touch to his home with decorations evocative of his hobbies: paintings of nature, fishing gear, a shelf made of an oar.

“What Chris and Benny and others did with the furniture was phenomenal. I’m so happy. I get compliments on it!” Ken adds. “It’s a very nice place. I feel obligated to keep it clean inside and out.”

Once homeless, beaten, and forgotten, Ken now sleeps safe and sound in his own home. He still visits the Center from time to time to have a coffee with Chris, chat with Frank, or say hello to Fr. Tim.

Ken’s journey embodies what we hope to be for every individual who comes to us in need. We make sure each guest has their most basic needs met so they can take steps towards stability. We recognize the inherent dignity in each person, and fight for that dignity to be upheld by all. And we base our work in the deep-seated belief that transformational healing comes from community and kinship.

And to those who support the Center, Ken has a message: “Thank you. I don’t know where I’d be if it weren’t for you all.”

BRIDGE HOUSING CAMPUS

Bridge Housing Capital Campaign Donors (Cash and pledges as of 6/30/2022)

In December 2021, Pope Francis Center held its long-awaited groundbreaking for the Bridge Housing Campus, an innovative facility and unique approach designed to eliminate chronic homelessness in Detroit.

“Today marks the beginning of the end of chronic homelessness in Detroit,” said Fr. Tim McCabe, SJ, executive director of the Pope Francis Center. “Our innovative Bridge Housing Campus will provide a new type of personalized, coordinated care to move people from a life on the streets to a better future.”

The campus will feature 40 studio apartments, a cafeteria, gymnasium, library, classrooms and health clinic. It will also include an outdoor shelter with heated sidewalks and overhead radiant heaters for those who have normalized homelessness and struggle to come indoors.

Guests will stay for 90 to 120 days and have access to trauma-informed care involving intensive medical, respite, psychological, addiction, and social and job-readiness services designed to break the cycles of chronic homelessness. Staff will help guests gather documentation needed to qualify for and access housing. When guests are psychologically and practically ready, they will transition into permanent supportive housing.

“The new Pope Francis Center in the Core City neighborhood is going to be a major part of our strategy to better support residents who are experiencing homelessness,” said Mayor Mike Duggan. “As a city, we are moving away from simply providing temporary overnight shelter to a model of providing more individual units and a full range of on-site supportive services to break the cycle of homelessness. I’m so proud of what Jim Farley and the team at Pope Francis are doing to treat these residents with dignity and respect.”

The City of Detroit sold the land for the Bridge Housing Campus to Pope Francis Center at a reduced rate to help support the organization’s mission and as part of the City’s commitment to combating homelessness.

As of June 2022, the Center has raised $27 million of the $33 million needed to build the Campus, including a record $13 million grant from The Julia Burke Foundation.

Construction on the Campus footings, foundations, and structures continued throughout the winter and spring of 2022, with an expected opening date in spring 2024.

THRIVE CAMPAIGN

2021 Crowdfunding Campaign

The sixth annual Thrive Campaign aimed to raise $80,000 to fund our Housing Advocacy Program, in which PFC staff work in partnership with other community entities to find permanent supportive housing for our guests and assist them in transitioning to a more independent lifestyle.

The September 2021 campaign was anchored by four special events: Bags & Brews (the fan favorite cornhole tournament at Eastern Market), Cooking with Clergy (a virtual cooking show with Fr. Tim and Pie-Sci Pizza), Stretch at Sunset (outdoor yoga at Beacon Park), and the Road Rally (team scavenger hunt across historic Detroit neighborhoods).

Altogether, the events and crowdfunding raised a grand total of $108,698 to grow PFC's Housing Advocacy Program.

BUILDING BRIDGES

2022 Annual Gala

The 2022 Building Bridges Gala brought us back together, in-person, to celebrate past successes and look to the future. On April 29, over 500 attendees joined us at Huntington Place while 100 more viewed the program virtually. It was great to gather once again to raise funds to support the guests of Pope Francis Center.

We proudly honored two outstanding individuals with the Zito-Brender Legacy Award. Vinnie Johnson (Chairman of the Piston Group), was recognized for his commitment to the Metro Detroit community and his support of PFC. Dr. Asha Shajahan (Physician, Medical Director, and Associate Professor, Beaumont Health) was honored for her tireless work to provide medical care to individuals experiencing homelessness.

Hosted by Chuck Gaidica, Herasanna Richards, and Fr. Tim McCabe, the program was full of inspiring and entertaining moments. Video messages from Martin Sheen, performances from Detroit spoken word artists Ife Martin and Ben Will, and an amazing set by the legendary Four Tops rounded out the program. A dance party set to live music from The Intrigue Band capped off the remarkable evening.

DONORS

A donation to the Pope Francis Center is more than a gift — it's a true expression of your care for our guests. Your gift feeds a hungry neighbor, provides warm clothing, gives access to medical and legal assistance, and brings guests closer to permanent housing.

Beyond that, your gift to the Center is a recognition of shared humanity and kinship. You are helping to create a circle of compassion that expands each day, meeting people at the margins of society and then erasing those margins until we recognize that we are all the same in God's eyes.

With the individuals and organizations listed on the following pages, we celebrate and give thanks for all who have given so that we might walk with our guests toward sustained stability.
